

SCHOOL READINESS QUIZ

SCHOOL READINESS TESTS - BRONWYN PEAKE

1	Choose the correct answer (indicate by ticking or highlighting the answer)
	What is School Readiness?
	a. School Readiness is a measure of how prepared a child is to succeed in a formal schooling environment.
	b. School Readiness measures the child's ability to socialize within his/her peer group.
	c. School Readiness is the umbrella term for the tasks that the parents undertake to complete before their children enter formal schooling.
2	Choose the correct answer
	Which factor could present as a stressor during a transition phase for a young learner
	a. Not being able to eat a snack when needed.
	b. Significant adjustments at multiple levels of functioning
	c. Having to wear a uniform on a daily basis
	d. A change in sleep patterns due to school attendance times
3	Choose the correct answer
	a) Early identification and intervention through school readiness assessments are therefore essential to facilitate a positive transition and towards experiences ideals of developmental success.
	b) Early identification and intervention through school readiness assessments is not important with regards to developmental success.
4	Choose the 2 correct answers
	What skills are needed for Grade 1 Development Domains?
	a. The child has to have the ability to interact appropriately with adults
	b. The child must show appropriate cognitive abilities
	c. The child must have the ability to ready themselves independently
	d. The child must be able to use the dimensions of speech and language appropriately
5	Answer True or False
	All diagnostic assessments available can be used with all children regardless of their background history and culture. T/F
6	Choose the correct answer
	Which form of school readiness assessment is used during an application interview at a school?
	a. Informal School Readiness Test
	b. Diagnostic School Readiness Assessment
7	Choose 2 correct answers
	What does the assessor do with the results obtained from a School Readiness Assessment?
	a. Feedback the results to the parents and discontinue contact
	b. Provide a comprehensive feedback session, advise placement and/or further intervention and offer continued support to the parents.
	c. Consider further referrals if difficulties presented in the assessment are more specific than anticipated.

A SCHOOLS PERSPECTIVE ON SCHOOL READINESS - BARBARA EATON

		Answer
8	Which is the correct statement a) In South Africa children must start school in the year they turn 7. b) In South Africa children must start school in the year they turn 8 c) In South Africa children must start school in the year they turn 6
9	Which is the correct statement a) Family readiness is not an important aspect of school readiness. b) Family readiness is an important aspect of social readiness. c) Family readiness is an important aspect of school readiness.
10	Choose the correct statement a) Orientation days are only for children. b) Orientation days are only for parents c) Orientation days are for children and parents
11	Parents must play a part in school readiness.	T/F
12	Choose the correct statement: a) Grade 1 teachers should start by knowing nothing of the children's backgrounds and previous schooling because they must make up their own mind about the child. b) Its valuable for Grade 1 teachers to get background information about their learners c) Parents should not share any of the child's history with the teachers.
13	Choose the correct statement a) School readiness begins at birth. b) School readiness begins at age 5 c) School readiness begins when the child learns to speak
14	Choose the correct statement a) Today's children do not require higher order skills b) Today's children must learn higher order thinking skills. a) Today's children only need to learn maths and reading.

SOCIO-EMOTIONAL HEALTH OF A CHILD AND ITS IMPACT ON SCHOOL READINESS - WENDY BAXTER

	Answer True or False	Answer
15	School success is predicted by the child's level of cognitive developmental only.	T/F
16	Choose the correct statement a) Successful resolution of Erikson's early childhood conflict results in the virtue of purpose. b) Successful resolution of Maslows early childhood conflict results in the virtue of purpose. c) Successful resolution of Erikson's early childhood conflict results in the virtue of interaction.
17	Choose the correct statement: a) Parents and teachers should focus on the child's behaviour when giving feedback rather than criticising the child as a person. b) Parents and teachers should only provide examples of the child's negative behaviour when giving feedback c) Teachers should criticize the child directly.
18	There is little that can be done to improve a child's level of conflict with peers once they have started school.	T/F
19	Choose the correct statement a) The way children feel about themselves can impact their friendship relationships. b) The way children feel about themselves has no impact on their friendships c) The way children feel about themselves is not important when it comes to schooling

20	Choose the correct statement a) There is no link that can be found between antisocial conduct and poor academic performance. b) There is a link that between antisocial conduct and poor academic performance. c) Poor behaviour and academic performance are in no way related.
----	---	--